Dear Mike:

Thank you for your letter of 13 September 1955 in behalf of [redacted] who is interested in employment

It is a little difficult to predict precisely what employment possibilities with us are at any given time due to fluctuations in our needs. However, generally speaking, [redacted] could be informed that our need for good secretaries is a more continuing requirement than that in the field of bacteriology.

I am enclosing a complete set of our application papers. If you will ask [redacted] to fill them out and return them, we shall be glad to review her application in light of current vacancies. As you requested, [redacted] letter is returned herewith.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,
